

Salsas

Salsas so good you'll eat them
with a spoon.

We don't do ordinary salsas, we do extraordinary salsas.

No one offers a broader line of salsas than Haliburton. Utilizing our unique Flash Pasteurization – Flash Cooling Process, we are able to lock in flavors and volatile aromas and create salsas with vibrant, fresh from the field colors, in a consistent, safe, certified Ready-to-Eat product. These are no ordinary salsas—they aren't the cooked, glass jar salsas most Americans have come to know, nor are they the refrigerated salsas in a plastic tub with short shelf life and inconsistent quality. Our Flash Pasteurization process rapidly kills spoilage organisms, enzymes and pathogens without over-cooking the product. Flash Chilling locks in colors, flavor and aromas, and extends the shelf life of our salsas. And best of all, our salsas are all natural and preservative free.

The fresher the ingredients the better the salsa.

We don't start with cans or drums of diced tomato or tomato paste. Our salsas are made from only the freshest ingredients, picked at the peak of flavor and nutrition. From the fields of Baja Mexico and California's Central and Imperial Valleys we select vine ripened tomatoes and tomatillos, fresh peppers, garlic, onions and cilantro, all hand-harvested and selected for color, flavor and freshness. We fire roast tomatoes, tomatillos, Jalapeno and Serrano peppers to enhance the flavor and develop the natural sweetness.

We toast chipotle,

De Arbol and habanero chiles and caramelize onion and garlic fresh in our plant every day.

If it's good, it's Salsa Fresca®.

Our Salsa Fresca® line of Authentic Mexican Table Salsas uses recipes handed down through generations and traditional preparation methods, to deliver the robust flavors and vibrant aromas of Mexico. So whether you're looking for Dipping Salsas, Fire Roasted Salsas or even fruit Salsas we have the product your customer will return for. From smooth salsas and salsa cruda to coarsely chopped Molcajete style salsas, Haliburton delivers the salsas you need in the packaging options you require – from our re-sealable 12 oz., 16 oz. and 32 oz. recyclable “Fresh Pouch” for retailers and club stores to our 2-pound through 10-pound flexible pouches for retail deli and foodservice operators, we have an easy to handle packaging solution that will fit every need.
